	30.5.2002 Shri Sanjay K. Agarwal, Deputy Advocate General for the State. Heard. It is an office reference. This writ petition has been registered in view of the heart-rending news published by the English Daily 'The Hitavada' on 10.5.2002 under the heading 'Rape Victim pleads for Justice' whereby the plight of the woman has been highlighted. A perusal of the news item shows that a married woman was forcibly raped by the accused Lekh Ram while she was alone in her house at Mandir Hasaud in June last year. It is also reported that the accused inflicted stab injuries when she resisted. Thereafter she was admitted to the hospital in a serious condition and the doctors said her treatment required heavy cost which her husband Genduram could not bear. According to the news-report the woman has three kids to be looked after and she has become nearly handicapped due to the injuries inflicted on her. The accused, as reported, is still at large. Shri Agarwal submits that the matter shall be enquired into and suitable action shall be taken by the State. In view of the statement made by learned counsel this petition is disposed of with the direction that the District
